Dear Bill:

This is a belated thanks for your March 27th letter enclosing the copy of the January 31 edition of the New York Times on the occasion of your inauguration as President of the National Press Club.

I read it with a great deal of enjoyment and again say that they could not have made a better choice.

Faithfully,

EXCISE

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
NATIONAL PRESS CLUB
WASHINGTON, D. C.

March 27, 1959

Dear Allen:

Jack Shea told me after the White House luncheon that you were interested in seeing a copy of the infamous New York Times edition that marked my inauguration as President of the National Press Club. Here it is.

Now will you come and make a speech?

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Bill Lawrence".
